

Learning from the Holocaust

Continuous Professional Development

Study Visit to Krakow

31 October – 03 November 2017

This programme involves a four-day study visit to Krakow and is supported by preparation and reflection seminars at Trinity College Dublin

Gate tower, Auschwitz-Birkenau

This programme is designed to help teachers grasp the enormity of the Holocaust and an understanding of Jewish life in Europe up to the Second World War. It introduces them to the complex and challenging subject of the Holocaust encouraging them to develop lessons suitable for their pupils.

Visit includes:

- Tours to: Kazimierz, Galicia Jewish Museum, Schindler's Factory, The Jewish Ghetto, Plaszow concentration camp, Oswiecim Jewish Centre and Auschwitz-Birkenau.
- Testimonies from Holocaust survivors and Polish Righteous Among the Nations.
- Lectures: University of Krakow.

Fee: €595 (PPS) inclusive of flights, hotels, seminars, lunches and tours

This programme can be taken independently or as part of the Certificate in Holocaust Education awarded by Trinity College

Holocaust Education Trust Ireland
Learning from the past - lessons for today

Claims Conference

For information and details about all our teacher education programmes, contact:

Holocaust Education Trust Ireland, Clifton House, Lower Fitzwilliam Street, Dublin 2, Ireland.
Tel: + 353 1 6690593 Email: info@hetireland.org www.hetireland.org